WORKSHOP17 | Watershed

Workshop17 is a leading conferencing and event location conveniently situated in the V&A Waterfront with gorgeous views of Table Mountain. Our events team is dedicated to ensuring that your meeting, workshop or event is a success.

On any day, Workshop17 hosts a diverse range of collaborative engagements from small, focused meetings in our boardrooms, to workshops in our seminar rooms and product launches in our event space.

We are the workspace for a few hundred entrepreneurs who meet, lunch and work in our offices and cafe. This rhythm of consistent daily work life with intermittent bursts of eventing activity create an environment that buzzes with opportunity and ideas.

Workshop17 is situated in the Watershed building, between the Time Out Market and the Two Oceans Aquarium.

With a panoramic view of Table Mountain in the background we overlook the working dry dock and harbour. With the design and craft market below us we are surrounded by open and inspiring views and activity, which creates an inspiring environment for any meeting or event.

Main Event Space

Workshop17's Main Event Space is perfectly suited for any event - from a networking breakfast, to formal, seated dinners, large conferences or even niche exhibitions.

It boasts beautiful views of the iconic Table Mountain, overlooking the fully functional dry dock, providing the perfect backdrop for your event. As an empty shell, the space can be dressed up suitably to fit your unique brand and style, and has basic AV and seating for easy eventing.

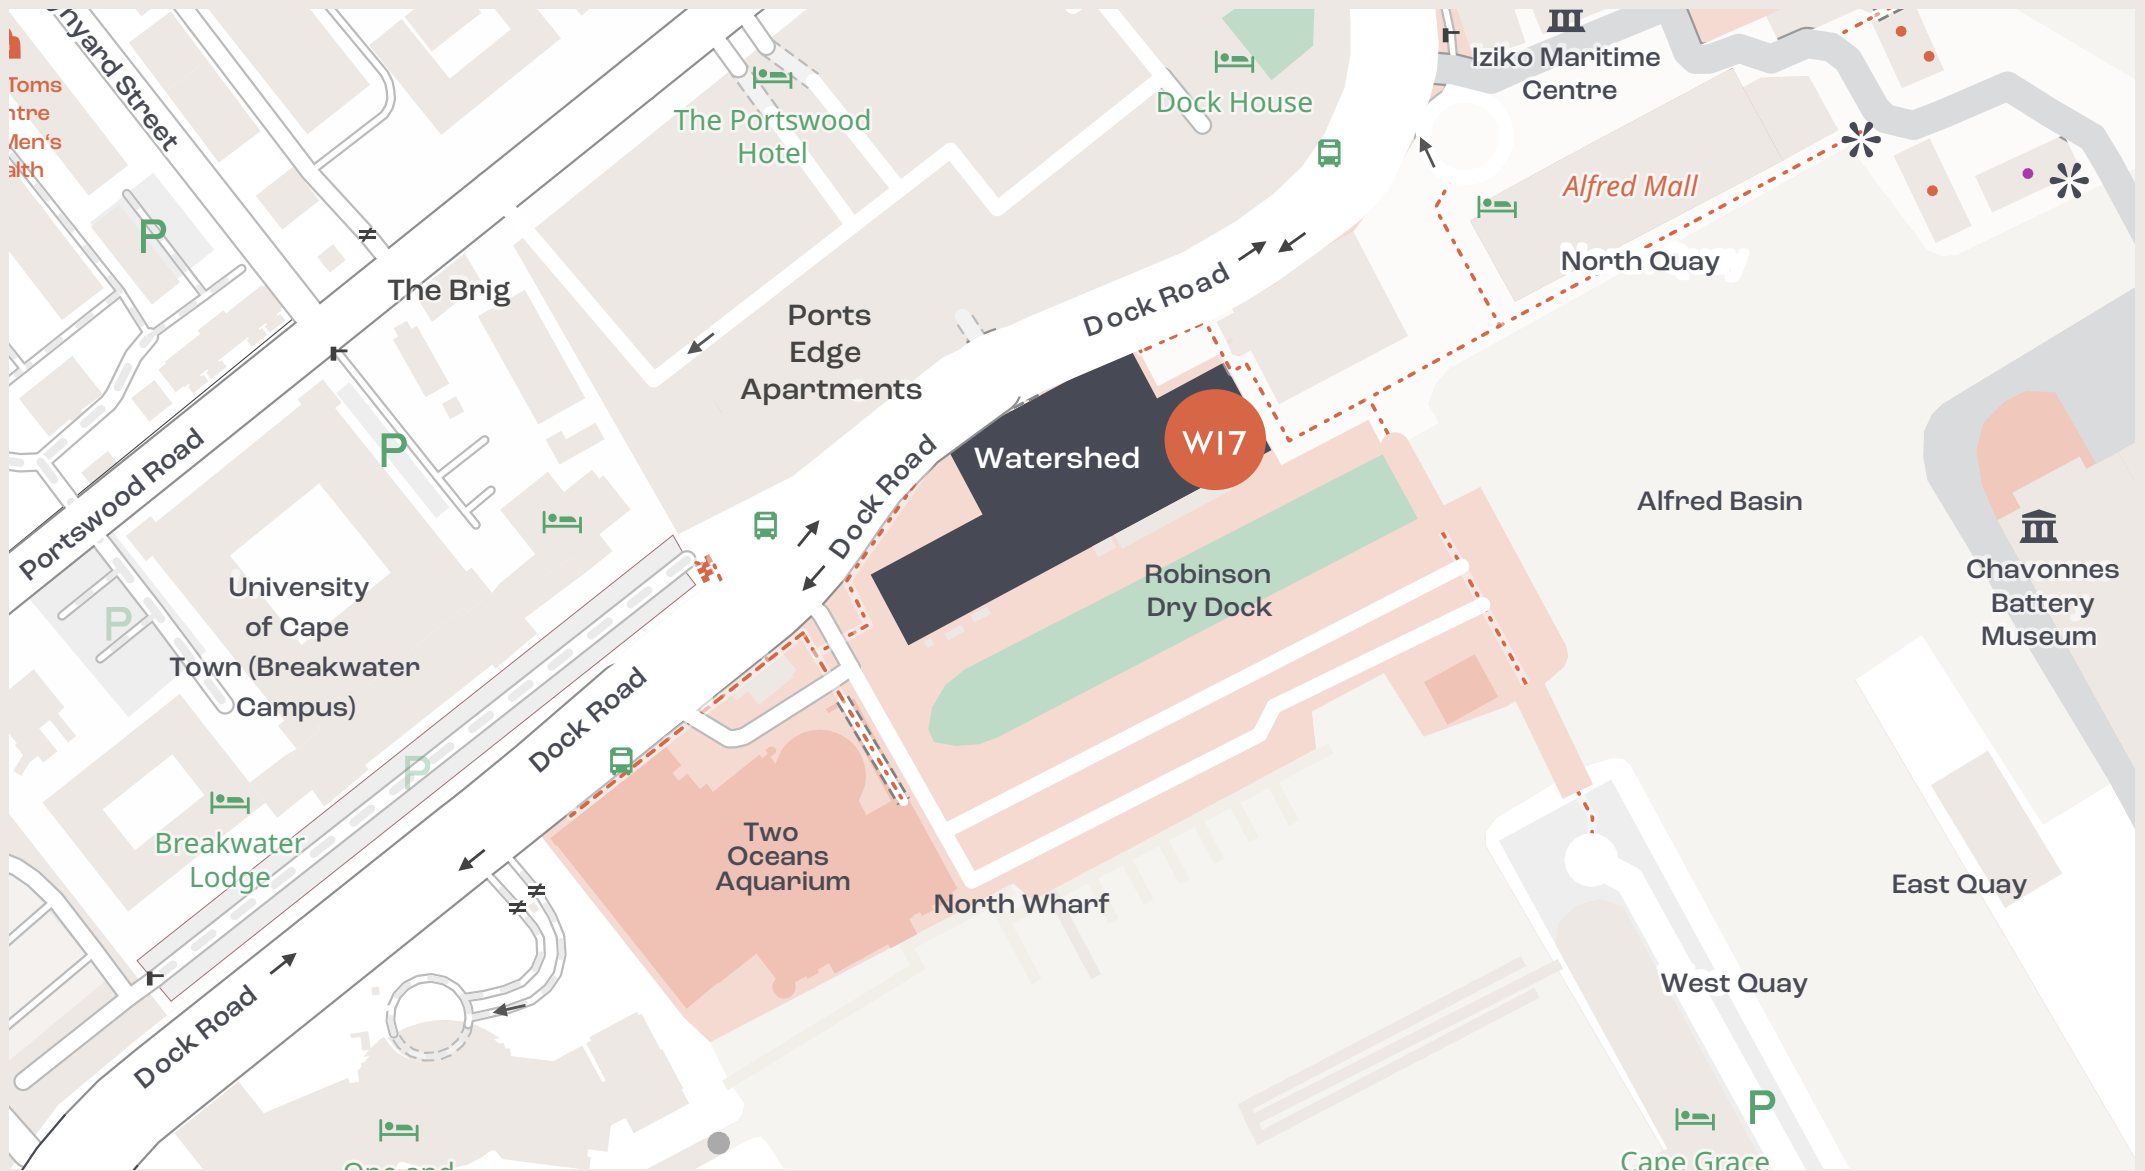

We can host groups of up to 200 for cocktail evenings, 180 cinema style conferences, or 120 people for a banquet with stage. The possibilities are only limited by one's imagination.
